Elementary	Rank 6	Elementary	Rank 3
Secondary	Rank 1	Secondary	Rank 9

Please see enclosure (Regional Memorandum No. 3 s. 2018).

2. The excellent performance can be attributed to the teamwork and hard work of our prolific campus writers in the public and private elementary and secondary schools with the admirable mentoring skills of their school paper advisers and the magnanimous support of their school heads and district supervisors.
3. ASDS Dr. Lourdes D. Servito, CID Chief Dr. Venus Ma, SM. Estonilo, EPS Agnes P. Bacugan - English, EPS Dr. Gemma M. Erfelo – Filipino, ASSPAD and AESPAD Officers are also commended for their altruistic and concerted efforts to inspire our budding journalists.
4. All coaches of the national qualifiers are strongly advised to continue the conduct of rigid school-based sessions/trainings in preparation for the forthcoming National Schools Press conference (NSPC) in Dumaguete City on February 19-23, 2018 and to download and be guided by the DepEd Memo No. 200, s. 2017.
5. To address queries related to the national school press conference, all winning coaches/school paper advisers are required to attend a meeting on January 19, 1pm, DTC.
6. This office is truly proud of our pen pushers! Congratulations again! Onwards to NSPC 2018! Let us continue to promote a culture of excellence in our division and nurture our youth - the hope and the future our nation!
7. For information, guidance and compliance.
